Dear Paul:

Thank you for your letter of 11 January 1961.
I too regret that weather conditions made it impossible for you to be in Washington on 14 December. Certainly I shall be glad to see you any time you are here and suggest that you give Miss [] a call in order that mutually acceptable arrangements can be made.

In the meantime, I shall be thinking about the proposal contained in your letter.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
